2 Answering Your FAQs

2.1 What is HP Academy?

HP Academy is our maiden Learning Management System, meaning, it is a platform that will be used to administer, monitor, and track online training. In other words, it is a “portal” wherein you can go and “attend trainings”, and the “portal” maintains a record of your progress on these trainings, the list of the trainings you have taken on the portal, etc.

2.2 Who is it meant for?

HP Academy has been developed for all officers, across grades.

2.3 How will HP Academy benefit me? What is in it for me?

HP Academy provides a chance to you to upskill yourself, polish your skills, and be the best in what you do. It, to a certain extent, removes your dependency on others to train you on skills you would like to possess. It also removes constraints on which training you can be nominated for, since you can choose to enrol yourself in trainings which do not pertain to your function / SBU. HP Academy gives the reins of your professional development in your hands.

2.4 Is it mandatory for me to complete trainings on HP Academy?

Yes, and no. There are two parts to this question. Some trainings will be mandatory – which will be assigned to you either by Capability Building department (admin) or your supervisor. You will be notified about these trainings and their end date. The rest of the trainings which are available on the platform, however, are purely interest based. You can choose to complete some or all based on your interest.

2.5 Will my trainings on HP Academy be monitored? Who will keep a track of it?

The Capability Building department is the administrator on HP Academy and will keep a track of all the mandatory and voluntary trainings. Your supervisor can assign your trainings on HP Academy which will be “mandatory” in nature, and can keep a track of whether you have completed them or not.

2.6 Will there be assessments for trainings on HP Academy?

Most of the trainings on HP Academy are followed by assessments. It is mandatory to clear the assessments with a score of 70% or more in order to obtain the course completion certificate. There is a “badge” system as well, which is as follows:

1. More than 90% in assessment – Gold Badge
2. Between 80-90% in assessment – Silver Badge
3. Between 70-80% in assessment – Bronze Badge

The badges are displayed on your profile and are also printed on your course completion certificates.

2.7 Will my trainings or assessment scores on HP Academy have any bearing on my performance?

No. HP Academy aims to provide you a safe learning zone wherein you can comfortably learn and make mistakes. You can retake the courses and assessments as many times as you like, with no bearing on your performance whatsoever. Having said that, as an added advantage, you can mention your learning activities in your annual balanced scorecard as your investment into your professional development.

2.8 Will HP Academy replace other forms of trainings, such as those in HP MDI, Nigdi?

No. HP Academy is not a substitute to HP MDI, Nigdi, but only a supplement. HP Academy aims to provide increased learning opportunities to you, irrespective of your location / designation. Nominations to all the external / internal training programs will continue as usual.

2.9 I cannot find the trainings I want on HP Academy. What do I do?

HP Academy is a new initiative with a handful of trainings available right now. We plan to scale it further with more trainings every month. Do keep checking HP Academy for new trainings of your interest. Additionally, we would be happy to hear about any particular training you want on HP Academy and will try our best to make it available as soon as possible.

2.10 I cannot enrol in a course / cannot log in / have issues accessing a course. What do I do?

Write to us at hpacademy@mail.hpcl.co.in with your queries / issues. We will try our best to resolve it ASAP.

2.11 I have suggestions to improve HP Academy. Who do I tell them to?

We are happy to receive your valuable inputs / suggestions at hpacademy@mail.hpcl.co.in.
